How Do We Advance the Palestine Issue in the Age of Trump & May?

ICAHD UK's 2017 spring conference will address the fast-changing reality with US President Donald Trump's blatant support of Israel and Netanyahu. Will international law ever be enforced? Can we find hope in the UN? In the UK Teresa May's government is pandering to America and has redefined anti-Semitism. What should be our priorities in the year when the centenary of the Balfour Declaration is commemorated? What is the response from ICAHD and other organisations as new challenges are faced?

Featured speakers include:

Jeff Halper, Co-Founder Israeli Committee Against House Demolitions, professor of anthropology, activist and analyst. His books include 'Obstacles to Peace', 'An Israeli in Palestine' and 'War Against the People', 2006 Nobel Peace Prize nominee.

Ardi Imseis, PhD Candidate in the Department of Politics and International Studies at Cambridge University, and a Visiting Research Scholar in the Department of Law at the American University of Cairo; Ardi comes with twelve years experience in senior policy and legal capacities with the United Nations in the Middle East.

Robert Cohen, a British writer, blogs at Micah's Paradigm Shift and Writing from the Edge

This conference will:

- UPDATE on the century-long process of judaization that is virtually completed
- HIGHLIGHT the increasingly authoritarian climate in Israel
- EQUIP attendees for future campaigning and events
- SHARE information on ways to connect with ICAHD on the ground
- PROVIDE free and saleable resources
