

The future of Christians in Palestine: An existential threat?

The current conflict in Palestine has accelerated what was already an inexorable exodus of Christians from Palestine.

The illegal occupation and economic insecurity make their situation increasingly untenable. How can Christians in Britain support them ?

Fr Fadi Diab, Rector of St Andrew's Ramallah and St Peter's Birzeit will be sharing insights direct from the West Bank.

You are invited to join in Q&A

This will be followed by a presentation led by Val Hallard of the Carlisle Diocesan motion focused on Israel and Palestine and scheduled for February 2025

Monday 9th July from 7:50 am Room P/T/005
